22nd SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Sunday Troparion

(Tone 5) Let us, the faithful, praise and worship the Word, co-eternal with the Father and the Spirit, born for our salvation of the Virgin. For in His Good will He was lifted up on the Cross in the flesh to suffer death and to raise the dead by His glorious Resurrection.

Troparion of the Venerable Father

(Tone 8) You did irrigate the barren desert with your tears, and with sighs from the depths of your soul you made it to bear fruit an hundredfold. You were a beacon to the whole world radiating miracles. O Ioannicius our father, pray to Christ God, that our souls be saved.

Sunday Kondakion

(Tone 5) You descended into Hades, O my Saviour, destroying its gates as the Almighty, resurrecting the dead as Creator and destroying the sting of death. You have delivered Adam from the curse, O Lover of Mankind, and we all cry out to You: save us O Lord.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Kondakion of the Venerable Father

(Tone 8) You were made visible as a most radiant star, shining forth in the world and did bring light to those in the shadows of the passions. And you proved to be a most mighty physician. As you received the grace of healing, grant healing to those who ask it of you, that we may chant: “Rejoice, O father Ioannicius.”
Both now, and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Theotokion

(Tone 6) O Protection of Christians that cannot be put to shame, / unchanging mediation unto the Creator, / do not despise the suppliant voices of sinners, / but be quick to come to our aid, O Good One, / who in faith cry out to You: / hasten to intercession and come quickly to make supplication, / for You, O Theotokos, always protect those who honour You.

Prokeimenon

Reader: (Tone 5) You, O Lord, shall protect us and preserve us from this generation and forever.

Verse: O Lord, save me for there is no longer any righteous man.

Reader: A 2nd Prokimen in the 7th tone, Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints.

Epistle

(Galations 6:11-18) — Brethren:
See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand! As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, these would compel you to be circumcised, only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For not even those who are circumcised keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God. From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen..

Alleluia Verses

Reader: (Tone 4) Bend your bow and proceed prosperously, and be king because of truth, meekness, and righteousness. Alleluia.

Verse 1: You have loved righteousness and hated iniquity. Alleluia.

Verse 2: Another Alleluia in Tone 6: Blessed is the man who fears the Lord, who greatly delights in His commandments. Alleluia.

Gospel

(Luke 8:41-56) – Let us be attentive. And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus’ feet and begged Him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. Now a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, came from behind and touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped. And Jesus said, “Who touched Me?” When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, “Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’” But Jesus said, “Somebody touched Me, for I perceived power going out from Me.” Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately. And He said to her, “Daughter, be of good cheer; your faith has made you well. Go in peace.” While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue’s house, saying to him, “Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher.” But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, “Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well.” When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in except Peter, James, and John, and the father and mother of the girl. Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, “Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping.” And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead. But He put them all outside, took her by the hand and called, saying, “Little girl, arise.” Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat. And her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Communion Verse: Praise the Lord from the heavens, praise Him in the highest. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
The righteous man shall be in everlasting remembrance. He shall not fear evil tidings. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

A note regarding Holy Communion
The Holy Orthodox Church understands Communion to mean that we have all things in common, sharing an identical Faith, and only those who are members of the Orthodox Church and who have prepared themselves through prayer, fasting and recent confession may participate in Holy Communion. If you have questions concerning the above, or if you would like to become a member of the Orthodox Church, please feel free to speak with Fr. Patrick.
